

THE AUTHORS

Karl M. Gaspar, CSsR is a Redemptorist Brother and a Mindanawon scholar and cultural icon. He finished A.B. Sociology (Ateneo de Davao University), M.S. Economics (Asian Social Institute) and Ph.D. in Philippine Studies (UP-Diliman). He was granted a Ph.D. in Humanities Degree by Xavier University Ateneo de Cagayan. Being a multi-awarded writer, his published books include Desperately Seeking God's Saving Action, Manobo Dreams in Arakan and Ordinary Lives Lived Extraordinarily. He is currently teaching at the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI) and the Ateneo de Davao University.

Mark Anthony Zarate, OFM is a member of the Order of Friars Minor-Custody of Saint Anthony of Padua-Philippines. He is presently taking up his Theological studies at the Saint Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI). He is privileged to have journeyed with the people of Valencia, Dumingag, Zamboanga del Sur for his mission-immersion in 2018.

Miguel A. Gaspe, CSsR is a Redemptorist from the Cebu Province. He is a graduate of Marketing Management degree from the University of Mindanao and is currently pursuing Theological studies at the St.

Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI). Currently, he is the Caput-Leader of the Redemptorist Studentate in Davao City. In 2018, he was assigned in Sumba, Indonesia for his immersion-exposure.

Fr. Jonecito R. Saguban, TOR is a member of the Third Order Regular of St. Francis (TOR Franciscans). Born on August 18, 1971 in Jugno, Amlan, Negros Oriental, he finished AB in Philosophy at St. Joseph Seminary College in Dumaguete City. In March 2009, he graduated from St. John Vianney Theological Seminary in Cagayan de Oro City. At present, he is assigned as parish administrator at the San Pedro Calungsod Parish at Kabacsanan, Iligan City.

Froilem Bonn S. Barretto, CSsR is a Redemptorist theology student of the Province of Cebu. He hails from Parang, Maguindanao and is a graduate of AB in Philosophy at the Notre Dame University, Cotabato. Prior to his entry to the Redemptorist Missionary Congregation, he had a wide work experience in different fields, i.e., academe, retreats, corporate world, etc. For his immersion-exposure as a Redemptorist Brother, he was assigned to Sri Lanka where he journeyed with the young boys of the Integral Educational Academy, Buluthota under the Diocese of Ratnapura in the Sabaragamuwa Province of Sri Lanka.

Fr. Colm Meaney, CSsR is an Irish Missionary Priest of the Redemptorist Province of Cebu. He had his theological studies at the Kimmage Manor Theology Institute in Dublin, Ireland and later studied Moral Theology at the Alphonsianum in Rome. For more than 20 years, he had been conducting Redemptorist-style missions, both rural and urban, in various places in the Philippines such as Iligan, Bacolod, Cebu and Dumaguete and was long involved in missions. He is currently assigned in the Davao Redemptorist Mission community.

Mr. Joseph Angeles Climaco is a college faculty from the Religious Studies Department of the School of Liberal Arts, Ateneo de Zamboanga University. He is on study leave under the Commission on Higher Education's K to 12 Transition Scholarship Program. Currently, he is writing his dissertation proposal for the degree, Ph.D. in Theology, at Ateneo de Davao University in consortium with St. Alphonsus Theological Mission and Institute.

Sr. Miriam Recreo Alejandrino, OSB, is a member of the Congregation of Benedictine Sisters of the Eucharistic King. She obtained her Masters in Religious Education from Maryhill School of Theology, Quezon City (1987); Licentiate in Monastic Theology from San Anselmo, Rome (1989); Licentiate in Biblical Exegesis from the Pontifical Biblical Institute, Rome (1992); and Doctorate in Biblical Theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University, Rome (1998). She is a resident professor and the present Academic Dean of the Saint Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute, Bajada, Davao City. She is also a visiting professor at the Regional Major Seminary (REMASE) at Catalunan Grande, Davao City.