

THE AUTHORS

Bro. Amila Pathum, CSsR is a Sri Lankan fifth year theology student of the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI). He has been very active in the ministry for the deaf and mute in the Our Mother of Perpetual Help parish, Davao city. In 2016, Bro. Amila was assigned to his home country for his immersion-exposure. It was there that he continued the pastoral work of ministering to the deaf, specifically in St. Joseph's College in Ragama, Sri Lanka.

Bro. Eric Soliven-Sevencruz, CSsR is a theology student of the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute. He is currently assigned in the Bislig Missions with the Redemptorist Itinerant Mission Team of the Province of Cebu. In 2016, he got assigned in Thailand for his immersion-exposure program. It was during this time that he had the opportunity to visit and serve the many mission stations, foundations and schools of the Redemptorists in Thailand.

Rev. Alfonso, P. Suico, Jr, CSSR, is a physician and Redemptorist missionary. He finished his medical studies at the Cebu Institute of Medicine and practiced community health in his missionary ministries. He received his Licentiate in Sacred Theology (STL) specializing in moral theology at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California. He is currently pursuing his doctoral degree in morals (STD) at the same institution. His areas of interest are in Catholic Social Teaching, fundamental morals, biomedical ethics, and reproductive health rights.

Fr. Ulysses S. Cabayao, SJ is a Jesuit priest assigned in Davao City. He holds the degrees of Bachelor of Science, major in Management Information Systems at the Ateneo de Manila University and Bachelor of Sacred Theology, magna cum laude at the Loyola School of Theology. He also has a Master's degree in Anthropology (Advanced) at the Australian National University and is a faculty member of the Anthropology department of the Atene de Davao University. He is also currently teaching theology at St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI).

Sr. Michelle de Silva, SMSM is a professed member of the Missionary Sisters of the Society of Mary since 2007. She was engaged in parish and community based pastoral ministry in Frías, Peru and Cartagena de Indias, Colombia. In 2016 she enrolled in the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI), Davao, Philippines and earned her Masters' degree in Theology Major in Religious Education in 2018. Sr. Michelle has been recently appointed as her congregation's Novice Directress.

Roawie L. Quimba is an associate professor of Theology at the Ateneo de Davao University. He also heads the university's Center Against Illegal Drugs which complement efforts of the Archdiocese of Davao and the Davao City Government to "stand for life". Currently, he pursues his doctorate in Theology from the same University in consortium with St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI) of the Redemptorist Fathers.

Bro. Ronald B. Balase, CSSR is fifth year theology student of the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI) and a member of the Redemptorist Vice-Province of Manila. In 2016, he got assigned in South Africa for his immersion exposure.

Fr. Allan Edward O. Pandaan, CSSR is a recently ordained Redemptorist priest of the Vice-Province of Manila and an MA Theology graduate of the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI). He is now currently assigned in the Redemptorist community of Lipa, Batangas.

Mr. Danilo Agustin Jr. is a SATMI alumnus who holds an M.A. Theology (Religious Studies) from the same institution. He is currently pursuing his Advanced Master's program in Systematic Theology at the Catholic University of Leuven.